- 22. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331, and jurisdiction over Plaintiff's state law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367.
- 23. This Court also has jurisdiction over Plaintiff's claims under the FLSA pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).
- 24. This Court also has original jurisdiction pursuant to the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005 ("CAFA"), codified at 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d), because the amount in controversy against the Defendant in this matter exceeds the sum or value of $5,000,000, exclusive of interest and costs.

COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

- 29. Plaintiff brings the First Cause of Action, an FLSA claim, on behalf of himself and all similarly situated persons who work or have worked as Hourly Workers for Walgreens who elect to opt-in to this action (the "FLSA Collective").
 - 30. Defendant is liable under the FLSA for, inter alia, failing to properly compensate Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective for their overtime hours worked.

- 31. Consistent with Defendant's policies and patterns or practices, Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective were not paid the proper premium overtime compensation of 1.5 times their regular rates of pay, including earned bonus pay, for all hours worked beyond 40 per workweek.
- 32. All of the work that Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective have performed has been assigned by Defendant, and/or Defendant have been aware of all of the work that Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective have performed.
- 33. As part of their regular business practice, Defendant has intentionally, willfully, and repeatedly engaged in a pattern, practice, and/or policy of violating the FLSA with respect to Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective. This policy and pattern or practice includes, but is not limited to, willfully failing to pay their employees, including Plaintiff and the FLSA Collective, the correct overtime wages for all hours worked in excess of 40 hours per workweek.

NEW YORK CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

34. Plaintiff brings the Second, Third, Fourth, and Fifth Causes of Action, NYLL claims, under Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, on behalf of themselves and a class of persons consisting of:

All persons who work or have worked as Hourly Workers for Walgreen Co. in New York between September 21, 2014 and the date of final judgment in this matter (the "New York Class").

- 35. The members of the New York Class are so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable, and the disposition of their claims as a class will benefit the parties and the Court.
 - 36. There are more than fifty members of the New York Class.
- 37. Plaintiff's claims are typical of those claims that could be alleged by any member of the New York Class, and the relief sought is typical of the relief which would be sought by each member of the New York Class in separate actions.

- 38. Plaintiff and the New York Class have all been injured in that they have been uncompensated, under-compensated, or untimely compensated due to Defendant's common policies, practices, and patterns of conduct. Defendant's corporate-wide policies and practices affected everyone in the New York Class similarly, and Defendant benefited from the same type of unfair and/or wrongful acts as to each member of the New York Class.
- 39. Plaintiff is able to fairly and adequately protect the interests of the New York Class and has no interests antagonistic to the New York Class.
- 40. Plaintiff is represented by attorneys who are experienced and competent in both class action litigation and employment litigation and have previously represented many plaintiff and classes in wage and hour cases.
- 41. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy particularly in the context of wage and hour litigation where individual class members lack the financial resources to vigorously prosecute a lawsuit against corporate defendants. Class action treatment will permit a large number of similar persons to prosecute their common claims in a single forum simultaneously, efficiently, and without the unnecessary duplication of efforts and expense that numerous individual actions engender.
- 42. Common questions of law and fact exist as to the New York Class that predominate over any questions only affecting Plaintiff and/or each member of the New York Class individually and include, but are not limited to, the following:
 - (a) whether Defendant correctly compensated Plaintiff and the New York Class for hours worked in excess of 40 per workweek;
 - (b) whether Defendant correctly compensated Plaintiff and the New York Class on a timely basis;

- (c) whether Defendant failed to furnish Plaintiff and the New York Class with a proper time of hire wage notice, as required by the NYLL; and
- (d) whether Defendant failed to furnish Plaintiff and the New York Class with accurate statements with every payment of wages, as required by the NYLL.

PLAINTIFF'S FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

43. Consistent with their policies and patterns or practices as described herein, Defendant harmed Plaintiff, individually, as follows:

Levaughn Samuel

- 44. Samuel was employed by Walgreens at their store located at 120 Court Street, Brooklyn, New York 11201 as an hourly employee from on or about March 25, 2018 through approximately September 1, 2020.
- 45. During his employment, Samuel frequently worked over 40 hours per week. In weeks where Samuel worked over 40 hours per week and earned bonus pay, Defendant failed to calculate the overtime rate including hourly bonus pay.
- 46. For example, for the pay period of March 25, 2018 to April 7, 2018, Samuel worked 34.2 minutes of overtime and earned bonus pay and an hourly rate of $13.00 per hour, therefore the overtime was paid of $19.50 per hour failed to account for the bonus pay he earned. See Exhibit A, Samuel Paystub.
- 47. Furthermore, during his employment, over twenty-five percent of Samuel's duties were physical tasks, including but not limited to: (1) stocking shelves; (2) rearranging items on shelves; (3) sweeping floors; (4) installing alarm tags; (5) removing secured items from shelves; (6) bagging and carrying customer's items; (7) wiping down the cashier station and break room; and (7) continuously standing and walking throughout his entire shift.

- 48. Despite regularly spending more than twenty-five percent of his shift performing these physical tasks, Samuel has been compensated by Defendant on a bi-weekly basis.
- 49. For example, for the week beginning on March 25, 2018 and ending March 31, 2018, Samuel was paid his lawfully earned wages on April 12, 20218. See Exhibit A.
- 50. In this regard, Defendant failed to pay Samuel his wages earned from March 25, 2018 through March 31, 2018 by April 7, 2018, as required by NYLL § 191(1)(a).
- 51. Defendant failed to provide Samuel with a proper time of hire wage notice as required by the NYLL.
- 52. Throughout Samuel's employment, Defendant failed to provide Samuel with accurate wage statements which showed the number of hours he worked each week.
- 53. Furthermore, Defendant failed to provide Samuel with wage statements which reflected his correct overtime rate. See Ex. A.
- 54. In this regard, Defendant failed to provide Samuel with accurate wage statements with each payment of wages as required by the NYLL.
